

Current Vacancies

Thank you for your interest in joining Kingston Smith LLP. The hallmark of our practice has always been our direct personal approach to both clients and employees, coupled with our range of services and experience.

Being a member of the Kingston Smith LLP team, is a great experience. The professional yet friendly culture and sociable atmosphere enables you to feel fully integrated. Your input really matters at Kingston Smith LLP. The nature of our work and type of clients we deal with does make us truly stand out from the rest. Our resource and expertise allows us to deliver however the nature of our clients and the broad range of services that we provide, make for an exciting and interesting role – we have a close working relationship with our clients and truly get to know them and understand their business - a different approach.

Whether you are looking for a professional, graduate or support role, everyone is held in equal regard and importance, and each individual is recognised for the contribution they make in helping to drive the firm forward and strive for the success of the overall business and its goals.

- Vacancy Listing

© 2012 Kingston Smith LLP: Accountants in London (City and West End), Hayes, Redhill, Romford and St Albans

Follow us on:

