Anjali is a partner in our dedicated charities and schools group with over 14 years experience of the charities and schools sector.

Her experience includes working with over thirty different schools ranging from preparatory schools such as Staines Preparatory School, and Upton House School (Windsor) and St Columba's College and Preparatory School (St Albans) to senior schools with such as St. Georges (Harpenden), Chigwell School and Queenswood (Herts) as well as complex groups including the Methodists Independent Schools. She has worked with the governing bodies such as the IAPS and has assisted in the schools' cost survey. She regularly provides training for bursars and governors both for clients and through seminars.
