Heather Powell joined Kingston Smith LLP as a partner in the City office in October 2007.

Heather has considerable experience working with clients in the property sector, ranging from developers to the many businesses who provide services to developers as well as property investors. Heather's portfolio also comprises entrepreneurial businesses with whom she takes great pleasure in building up a good relationship and a full understanding of both the business and the owners' aspirations and plans.

A graduate of St Catharine's College, Cambridge (Heather is now secretary of the St Catharine's College London Society), Heather trained and worked with KPMG before moving overseas. On returning to the UK she joined and subsequently became a partner in a smaller firm.
