After graduating from the University of Surrey, Paul Samrah joined our City Office as a trainee in 1981. Qualifying in 1986, he became a Partner at the Redhill office six years later.

Paul's client base includes limited companies, partnerships and sole trader businesses. He has extensive experience of business and share valuations and is able to offer a broad range of strategic, commercial and taxation advice. In addition, Paul heads up our Healthcare sector, an area in which he regularly presents seminars.

Paul was heavily involved in assisting the British Medical Association on various aspects of the New Contract for GPs.

Paul is Treasurer and past Chair of Henfield Football Club and is a past Chair of Henfield's St. Peter's Primary School PTA. He is also a past Treasurer of the Old Brightonian Association.
