Daniel joined Kingston Smith as a graduate trainee in 1997 and became partner in our Romford office in 2008.

Daniel acts for a mixed portfolio of clients from start up businesses to large groups. Daniel has considerable experience in advising owner managed businesses, and has a significant number of clients in both the Manufacturing and Healthcare sectors where he has worked to develop bespoke services to his clients.

Daniel is currently a member of the Audit Committee of a local Sixth Form College.
