

Sectors

We often commission research into key issues for small and medium sized businesses. Our own research into the barriers to growth for owner managed businesses found that small and medium sized businesses favoured industry-specific advice, rather than that which simply reflected the size of their organisation.

As a result, we have developed considerable expertise in a number of industry sectors. Click on the sector links for more information.

