

Association Management

Kingston Smith Association Management \(KSAM\) is the largest association management company in the UK. We specialise in managing trade and professional associations, learned societies and other membership organisations. If you're involved in running such an organisation, we're here to support you in delivering the best possible service and value for money for your membership. We can provide you with a carefully tailored package of services including:

Setting up a new trade association - we can help you set up your association

Advice on representational work - we can advise you on how best to represent your members' interests to local, national or European governments and policy-makers

Strategic advice - we can help you to navigate the future

Governance advice and reviews - helping you to promote excellence

Executive management services - we run your board so you can focus on managing the organisation

Full service management - delivering a full professional service for your association including:

- Accounting and bookkeeping
- Event management
- Membership services
- Website services

By taking advantage of economies of scale and leading technologies, we can offer a highly competitive service that can help your association achieve its objectives efficiently and effectively.
