

Forensic Services

Our Forensic Services Group's specialist forensic accountants, computer forensic experts and licenced insolvency practitioners help you investigate and resolve disputes, and recover assets from failed debtors, and fraudsters and other criminals. The team combines accountancy, auditing, valuation, IT and investigation skills.

Our forensic accountants, computer forensic experts and licensed insolvency practitioners have conducted hundreds of investigations and forensic examinations in the UK and internationally, in both the corporate and law enforcement industries. They have testified as expert witnesses in many court cases and maintain industry-leading certifications.

We provide the following services to individuals, corporate entities, lawyers and professional advisers, regulatory bodies, government and law enforcement agencies and judicial authorities.
